Job Title: Reporter, JTA/New York Jewish Week
Industry: Internet/Media
Benefits: 403b/Dental/Health
Schedule: Full Time, Monday - Friday, 9:00am - 5:00pm ET
Salary: Range of $45k-$55k

JTA and the New York Jewish Week are looking for a full-time reporter to own the Jewish beat in New York. Our ideal candidate is an insightful, curious newshound with a deep love for all things New York, an understanding of Jewish culture and community, and an interest in covering the religious, ethnic and political diversity that shapes it. From local politics to synagogues to college campuses to the latest bagel place, you'll cover it all -- the epicenter of American Jewish life will be yours to explore.

This position will report to the editor of the Jewish Week, but their stories will also be featured on JTA and on other 70 Faces Media partner sites and syndication clients, reaching millions of readers per month. The JTA/Jewish Week newsroom is fully integrated, and a team of reporters, editors and audience experts meets regularly to brainstorm stories, share tips and maximize the impact of our work.

This is an ideal position for an early-career reporter looking to explore New York while making a splash in front of a devoted readership that cares deeply about the issues they'll be covering.

Responsibilities include:
- Writing and reporting 2-4 stories per week and shorter items as needed
- Willingness to work across different subject areas—politics, religion, food, and arts & culture
- Report directly to the editor in chief to develop and pitch new story ideas
- Contribute to daily newsletter
- Attend all-staff and cross-brand meetings with staff from 70 Faces Media properties

Desired skills and experience:
- 1-5 years reporting experience
- Strong interest in New York City and its Jewish community
- Ability to multitask and take direction in a fast-paced environment
- Ability to meet deadlines
- Desire to collaborate and brainstorm
- Familiarity with social media best practices
- Ability to shoot photographs and videos a plus

About 70 Faces Media:
